What God thinks about those who are in Christ

He treasures you, prizes you and cares about you. He never forgets you. You are precious to Him. He considers you completely worth-while. He calls you His beloved. You are dear to his heart. He is devoted to you and has deep affection for you. He is fond of you and holds you dear. He is committed to you. He approves of you and cherishes you. He considers you important to Him. You are valuable and significant to Him and He rates you highly. He likes you, esteems you and appreciates you. He is in favor of you. He has the highest regard and compassion for you. He gladly welcomes you into His presence. His heart overflows toward you and He calls you by name. He has sacrificed Himself and suffered for you. He has chosen you to be His very own. You are fully pleasing to Him. He has forgiven all of your past sins, present sins and even your future sins. You are totally accepted by Him and acceptable to Him. You are 100% complete to Him. There is nothing you can do to make Him love you more than He does now and there is nothing you can do to make Him love you less than He does now.

This is all true because Christ died for you and rose from the dead. He died to take away your sins and clothe you with His Righteousness. He rose from the dead so that you could live with Him and for Him.
